Using the Ultraiso or Poweriso or Daemon Tools software, Mount Disk 1 and run the setup.exe file. In the initial installation window, click Install Ansys License Manager and install the license management tool. After installation, click Next and wait for the license guided procedure window to appear; Select the first and predefined option and click Continue. Then give the license file.txt created in the passage preceding the program and click Continue more times. In the second method, start installing the program and not installing the lead license. After installation, copy and replace the two cracked files in the following position: C: \ Programs \ ANSYS INC \ Files Shared \ Licensing if you are installing software in a position other than the default, you need to change its address in the 'ANSYSLMD .ini Files.
